

Confidential information -
all copy rights reserved

TRAINING MODULE C

Module C is both a practical and intellectual training and is conducted at the Kathmandu our venue near the Great Boudhanath Stupa. It implies that participants live in Nepal for several weeks or months.

Module C addresses the needs of experienced sound therapists utilizing our treatments that wish to engage into conducting courses and become our Teachers.

Module C is mostly conducted for single individuals and is tailored to the Master trainees needs in 2 separate levels.

Module C1 is enabling trainees to conduct Modul A courses , a Module C2 is then enabling to conduct trainings with Module B content.

Module C1:

Intellectual topics include -

- Motivation of a Module A Teacher -
- What does it mean to be a Master - physical, emotional and spiritual aspects!
- Training tests-practical as well as theoretical
- Participation in at least 3 training Modules A including taking leading roles on practical as well as intellectual topics.
- 'What does it need to run a sound therapy praxis' Development of an own successful praxis - including topics on motivation, motivation development, as well as business related topics.

Deepened studies on the astromedical concepts of Paracelsus including research and treatment development for various conditions in collaboration and guidance of our trainers.

Practical topics include -

- Application of known our treatments as well as new research treatments.
- Development of handout materials for own courses.
- Business Plan development for own praxis.
- Conclusion- Getting ready to go! - our family plan for Module A teachers

Module C2:

Intellectual topics include -

- Motivation of a Mod B Teacher -
Mastering being a Master (Meditation).
Making sure to be sure!
- Participation in at least 3 trainings on Module B including taking leading roles on practical as well as intellectual topics.
- 'What does it need to upgrade your own sound therapy praxis'. Situation specific consultations with our teachers.
- Deepened studies on the astromedical concepts of Paracelsus that includes research and treatment developments for various conditions in collaboration and guidance of the our trainers.
- Development of a research paper under the guidance of SoundPlanetarium.

Practical topics include -

- Application of known SP treatments as well as new research treatments.
- Development of handout materials for own courses.
- Business Plan development for own praxis.
- Conclusion- Getting ready to go-
our family plan for Module B teachers

